Pt X, Line 2	The income tax status footnote in the audited financial statements reads as follows: The Organization is a nonprofit organization and is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for federal, state or local income taxes has been included in these financial statements. The Organization follows ASC 740, Income Taxes, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in the Organization's financial statements and prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740 also provided guidance on derecognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Organization did not have unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2018 and does not expect this to change significantly over the next 12 months. In connection with ASC 740, the Organization will recognize interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. As of December 31, 2018, the Organization has not accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The Organization files informational returns with the federal government. The Organization's federal informational returns for the past three years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

Pt III, col (b)	Most of the women who received this assistance were in the aftercare program (although some were in residence) which provides various kinds of support to previous residents for up to a year. Contact is continued through home visits, support group participation, phone calls, and mail. Except for the savings match payment, the payments noted were to third parties. Of the $6,102 in transportation noted above, the 8 received specific assistance totaling $704. The remaining $5,398 was for cab fare, gas cards, and bus passes that were provided to a number of additional aftercare and in-house residents.

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Line 31 - We have not received this type of contribution to date. However, if one is offered in the future, a group comprised of the executive director, selected board members, and perhaps an outside consultant would be gathered to determine the appropriateness of accepting such a contribution.
Pt I Line 32b	The only third party used in relation to noncash contributions is the nationally-known brokerage firm that sells contributed, publicly-traded securities. We have a policy to sell them immediately to avoid the risk of the value declining. The relationship with the individual broker within the firm that handles the transactions is of a business-nature only.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Pt III - Volunteer program - since the services of our volunteers generally do not require specialized skills, their value is not recorded in the audited financial statements because no objective basis is available to measure the value. An estimate of the value of such services is not included in the 990 per IRS instructions. TWSH generally pays for services requiring specific expertise.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 11b	The 990 draft was emailed to board members with a comment period and a request that each member respond during that period with either an approval or with additions/corrections. Responses were then summarized and any changes were forwarded to the tax preparer.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 12c	All board members, including new members, are required to sign the conflict of interest statement on an annual basis

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 15a	and Line 15b - Annually, generally in May, the board president sends an executive director review form to board members, compiles the results of the comments, and meets with the executive to report the comments/recommendations of the board members. At this time the executive director submits a self-review. After a formal discussion with the executive committee, annual goals and objectives are set and remuneration is reviewed and determined. The compensation of the executive director and other key employees is consistent with others in similar organizations in the St. Louis area. Budgetary considerations are also taken into account when determining compensation.

Pt XII, Line 2c	The finance committee reviews the audited financial statements, selects the auditors and outside accountant, and closely monitors the financial information throughout the year

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Pt VIII, line 8c - There is sometimes a "loss" on this line (event revenue less expenses) due to several things. It's generally difficult to determine the FMV of a ticket to an event (the gross event revenue is on line 8a) and some of the costs of hosting an event - postage, printing, promotion, etc - don't contribute to the value received by the attendees and so aren't reflected in the ticket FMV. However, if the sponsorships and contributions for the event were included (on line 1c), there was a significant amount of net revenue.
