Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The organization makes grants on a limited basis to support projects that fall clearly within the scope of the organization's mission and purpose, are integral to achieving a specific purpose, when funds are available from a funder who has granted the organization the discretion to use the funds to make a grant to a third party. When the organization receives a request for a grant, it carefully evaluates the qualifications of the proposed grantee, the purpose of the project, and the likelihood that the project will be completed if the grant is provided. The organization enters into a written agreement specifying the terms on which the grant is made and monitors the use of the funds through regular contact and collaboration with the grantee to ensure use in accordance with that agreement.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The President's compensation is determined by the chairperson of the board in consultation with the other board members. The process involves consideration of annual performance objectives set by the chairperson in consultation with the other board members and discussed with the president by the chairperson. These objectives are agreed upon in a written memo. At the end of each reporting period, the president prepares a report for the chairperson describing the president's performance against these objectives. The chairperson then analyzes this information, consults with the other board members, and then sets the president's compensation for the next year. A record of the compensation decision is documented in both the human resources department and the chairperson's own personnel file for the president. Compensation for other officers is determined by the president as part of the formal, annual performance evaluation process, which includes comprehensive written performance evaluations which are maintained in the human resources department. These evaluations include discussion and documentation of accomplishments, strengths, and areas for improvement, goals for the coming year, and the amount of the salary adjustment, if any.
