General information	Heat Up St Louis has minimal expenses. The policies require that all public donations and utility grants are used solely for winter/summer utility and related assistance for the qualified underprivileged. Administrative and other expenses related to the organization are underwritten by the officers and members of the board of directors, grants, and/or sponsors of specific fundraisers. Some legal services, banking, graphics and certain printing for fundraisers are donated by various corporations. The local media (newspapers, television and radio) help by running public service announcements, press releases and fundraiser promotions free of charge. Many of the organization's donors are and wish to remain anonymous. These are also local businesses who, as part of their policy to be good corporate citizens, make donations of goods and services but do not wish to be recognized for those efforts. A local fast food chain had a fundraiser where the entire proceeds from the purchase of a sausage and egg biscuit or egg biscuit on a specific day, and in-store collections went into their registers and were turned over to the charity at the end of the month. There was no charge for advertising, printing, volunteer aprons, or other promotional items, except postage, courier, rent, and media production, which are underwritten by grants and Board donations.
