Awareness and Education Program

At One by One Project, our awareness programs take place through our community events which are meant to inform the public of the problem of human trafficking and empower them to take action. Our education programs take place through workshops and presentations, held at schools, churches, universities, business groups, etc., that educate and give proper training on sex trafficking, spotting a victim and knowing what appropriate steps to take when they come into contact with a potential human trafficking situation.

Specialized Service Program

Victim Services is our pre-care services we offer before a victim leaves the life. Pre-care services include street outreach. During street outreach we pass out hygiene bags and other items that victims need or have requested.

Survivor Care

Survivor Care is our outpatient services we offer survivors that have left the life or been rescued or escaped from sex trafficking. We offer outpatient services to survivors who come to us on their own or are referred to us from other organizations, law enforcement, or individuals that know the survivor. These outpatient services are anything from teaching basic life skills, to finances and budgeting, to job training skills. We work one-on-one with each survivor to come up with their personalized restoration plan. This includes having them set goals that will help them move forward in their recovery, whether it be going back to school or finding a job. As they work towards each goal, the victim is also receiving counseling from service providers we partner with.
