We also graduated 12 individuals from our financial credit course which had undergone extensive development since its inception. We have grown internally and increased our in-house talent pool. We attended community events, resources fairs, along with other activities offered in the community to help publicize our services.

Administratively, Joshua's Hand developed new policies and procedures for grant writing and board development. We recruited new board members and developed our first annual budget.

Our Programs:

We focus our programming in three strategic areas: LIFE Development, Socioeconomic Development and Community Development.

Life Development: We pro-actively help young adults and families manage their troubles and utilize their time, talent, treasure, team and temple, teaching them how to live a healthy life. We offer Education and Career Guidance, LIVE to Conquer Culture and Joshua Lead programs.

Socioeconomic Development: We provide resources to our community members that fuel their opportunities. We offer Economic Leverage Initiative (ELI), Workforce Development, and Home Ownership Programs and Services programs.

Community Development: We are committed to uplifting neighborhoods, making them premier destinations for residents and businesses. We provide market rate homes, affordable housing developments, and entrepreneurial and small business development.
