Name: Americas Kids Belong

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Americas Kids Belong works collaboratively with the government, faith, creative and business communities to solve the foster care crisis in the U S. In 2018 68 business were engaged and gave of their time, talent or treasure to make a difference for foster families and youth aging out of foster care. 271 churches were engaged to provide education, develop a Wrap Around ministry, provide a recruitment event, or host a Child Welfare orientation. After laying strong groundwork this year, our AKB affiliate Virginias Kids Belong will be the third state within our history to launch a full collective impact campaign next year. We were excited that throughout these spheres 972 volunteers donated 2946 hours to make a difference with our I Belong Project, Dream Makers Project, fundraising events, faith sphere events, and through administrative assistance. One of Americas Kids Belong signature programs is the I Belong Project. With the help of the creative community, the I Belong Project is telling stories. Actually, through the I Belong Project, kids in foster care are telling their own story. In 2018 there were 16 video shoots across 4 states leading to 183 I Belong Project videos produced and shared of more than 207 children waiting for a family. These kids, on camera, were able to share with potential parents and families, their personality, what makes them tick, and all the hopes they have for a future with a family who would love them. Through these videos and recruitment events at churches, more than 1,000 families were recruited to take a next step to learn more about foster care or attend an orientation with the goal of becoming a certified foster parent. Another signature program is Dream Makers Project, which provides support for youth that are aging out or have already emancipated from the foster care system. This year emancipated youth in 13 different states were impacted through our Dream Makers Project. Through the investment of their time and their finances, individuals, churches, and businesses helped to fulfill 167 Dreams, move 26 youth into their first apartments, provide a graduation party and gift to 150 youth, provide a stocking and Christmas dinner for 100 youth, and meet the emergency needs of 43 youth. We also celebrated exciting news in Colorado. Our Dream Makers staff in CO worked alongside state elected officials to present HB18-1319 which was approved in May to become a law. This bill permits Colorado counties to provide services for youth who are emancipating from foster care until they are 21 using core services funding. Previously youth decided on their 18th birthday if they wanted to be emancipated and could not elect back into services when they realized they needed the support.
