Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT The YMCA of Rapid City is committed to nurturing the potential of every child and teen. We believe that all kids deserve the opportunity to discover who they are and what they can achieve. That's why we help young people cultivate the values, skills and relationships that lead to positive behaviors, better health and educational achievement. Our programs, such as afterschool, day camp, childcare, youth sports and swimming, offer a range of experiences that enrich cognitive, social, physical and emotional growth. Expenses include subsidies and direct financial assistance that make participation possible for over half of the young people we engage. For additional details regarding these critical programs and their impact, please see Schedule O. When left unsupervised during out-of-school time hours, youth and teens are at the highest risk of unhealthy choices, such as experimenting with drugs, alcohol, tobacco, sexuality and crime. YMCA programs during these critical times not only provide a positive alternative, but these also give kids good role models to help them develop strong values, respect for others, good citizenship, responsible behavior and honesty. Last year, 10,956 youth and teens participated in these highly subsidized programs. These programs include afterschool, day camp, childcare and youth sports. There was an average of nearly 600 kids participating each day in YMCA afterschool programs in 2018. Afterschool programs took place at the YMCA building and at 12 different elementary schools every day after school until 6pm. Activities in each of these programs included physical fitness, creative arts, science activities, tutoring, academic enrichment and just plain fun. Close relationships between school staff, parents, children and YMCA staff are fostered to better meet the needs of the youth. Y Day Camp took place at YMCA Giraffic Park, which is property that was acquired through a donation and is used for outdoor education. About 260 kids per day were bussed to YMCA Giraffic Park and participated in such activities as adventure games, archaeological digs, outdoor crafts, archery, chapel, hiking and more. Y Day Camp also took place in Custer and Edgemont with 60 and 30 kids participating each day respectively. The day camp experience was made complete through positive interaction with high quality adult role models. South Dakota is well above the national average with 78% of all available parents in the workforce with children under the age of 6. This presents both an economic strain and the need for quality early childhood development to ensure that young children are healthy and well-cared for. The YMCA childcare program in Rapid City is among the largest of childcare programs in South Dakota with over 200 preschool age children participating daily. Plus, there are 45 children in the Custer YMCA childcare center, which is conducted in partnership with the Custer School District. This acclaimed early childhood development program gives young children a solid foundation upon which to build their social, academic, physical and emotional growth. Plus, this program allows parents to remain gainfully employed. Like other youth development efforts, this program requires subsidy. One reason is that this is simply an expensive program to operate. The other reason is that no child is turned away due to inability to pay. Currently, 15 percent of the participants are on YMCA financial assistance. YMCA financial assistance policies help ensure that the YMCA is a place where children of all economic levels, from the affluent to the disadvantaged, receive the same quality care in the same setting. YMCA youth sports programs have the philosophy of kids first and winning second. To achieve this aim all volunteer coaches in YMCA sports are given an orientation training that stresses the Y way of coaching, which includes placing a priority on developing physical skills, social skills, self-esteem, and just plain having fun. Sports are a proven tool in preventing risk-taking behaviors such as substance abuse, sexual activity, violent behavior and problems in school. In 2018 there were nearly 1,200 youngsters participating in youth sports, which included basketball leagues, volleyball leagues, flag football leagues, baseball and softball leagues and soccer leagues. With the focus on skill development and character-building, the YMCA provided swim lessons for over 2,000 kids in 2018. An additional 60 special needs children also participated in fun and instructional water programs along with 45 kids and adults training for Special Olympics. These lessons took place at the YMCA of Rapid City Aquatic Center, Custer outdoor pool and Edgemont outdoor pool. The latter two pools were operated by the YMCA in partnership with the respective city governments. There were also multiple other youth programs that focused on special skill sets, but were used primarily to build character and social skills. These programs included visual arts, science, unicycle and teen leadership.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY The YMCA of Rapid City believes in giving back and supporting the most vulnerable in the community and has been doing so for more than 70 years. Y programs, such as YMCA Outreach Centers, Y Jump Start for teen moms, Y Youth Institute, sponsorship campaign, Live Well Black Hills, Summer Food Program and Summer Learning Loss Prevention are examples of how the Y delivers training, resources and support that empowers the community to effect change, bridge gaps, and overcome obstacles. For additional details regarding these critical programs and their impact, please see Schedule O. YMCA outreach programs give kids good role models to help them develop strong values, respect for others, good citizenship, responsible behavior, and honesty. Y Outreach Centers were operated at the Jerry Smith Outreach Center, North Teen Center, Downtown Teen Center, South Park School, Canyon Lake School, South Canyon School and Robbinsdale School. The centerpiece of each of these programs is top-notch staff that actively build relationships and provide direction, support and encouragement. The Jerry Smith Youth Outreach Center is the cornerstone for outreach programs that take place at the YMCA downtown building. Reaching about 100 kids each day, these youth participate in academic enrichment activities, crafts, table games, physical fitness, science projects, and more. These same activities take place at the YMCA North Teen Center and YMCA Downtown Teen Center. The YMCA North Teen center operates in partnership with Bethel Assembly of God church and had about 80 teens each day participating. The YMCA Downtown Teen Center operates in what is called the Y Church Building and had about 30 teens participating each day. The remaining outreach centers are at South Park, Canyon Lake, South Canyon, Robbinsdale, Hermosa, Custer and Edgemont elementary schools. These programs also incorporate the 21st Century Community Learning Center concept that brings a community together with a focus on academic enrichment. Each of these sites serves up to 60 kids each day. YMCA Jump Start takes place at Rapid City High School and is done in partnership with Rapid City Area Schools. Childcare was provided for 14 teen moms to help each of these young women stay in school and finish their high school education. Plus, mentoring was provided to help these moms, almost none of whom has family support, to learn basic life skills and how to properly care for their babies. A YMCA education coordinator helped plan their schedule, provide direction and encouragement, and even set their sights on higher education. The result has been a nearly 90% graduation rate for teen moms. The Y Youth Institute uses media technology as a tool for building confidence, marketable skills, and social skills in teens that are largely disconnected from family and school. At the end of a summer-long program, these 45 teens published a magazine and produced 6 short films. Now in its 9th year, there are over 30 alumni engaged in advanced media technology and serving as mentors for the new students. The annual sponsorship campaign brings 150 volunteers out to the community to help raise funds to support the effort to provide the financial assistance needed to get children from low income families into the YMCA. This group of volunteers raised over $250,000 in 2018. Live Well Black Hills is a group of 45 community leaders convened by the Y for the purpose of helping to improve the health of the community. This is accomplished through promotion of existing community-wide programs, developing new community-wide programs, and advocating for a built environment conducive to healthy living. The current focus is on developing and promoting a healthy workplace toolkit in area businesses, conducting a city-wide campaign to promote increased physical activity, and advocating the city's master walk and bike plan. With support from the USDA and a grant from the Walmart Foundation, over 72,000 free meals were given to kids who otherwise may not have had access to good nutrition during the summer months. Summer Learning Loss Prevention programming, called Summer Learners, is a partnership with Rapid City Area Schools in which the YMCA provides summer academic and enrichment programming for those students who are most at risk for experiencing summer learning loss. Last summer there were over 30 children who participated in this free program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

HEALTHY LIVING The Y is a leading voice on health and well-being in the community. The Y brings families closer together, encourages good health and fosters connections through fitness, sports, fun and shared interests. As a result, over 22,000 different people in the Rapid City, Custer, and Edgemont communities received the support, guidance, and resources they needed to achieve greater health in spirit, mind, and body. This is particularly important as each community battles decreased physical activities, families struggle with work/life balance, and individuals search for personal fulfillment. Y programs are accessible, affordable and open to all ages, races, faiths, economic backgrounds, and abilities. In 2018 the Y provided $1,725,245 in financial assistance and subsidized program services to people who otherwise would have faced economic barriers to participation. For additional details regarding these critical programs and their impact, please see Schedule O. With over half of Rapid City area adults getting less than recommended levels of physical activity, health and well-being are crucial community needs. Once again, the YMCA emerges as a leader in combating this growing concern, as the promotion of healthy living has been a part of the work of the YMCA of Rapid City since its inception in 1948. The Y is especially equipped to promote healthy living because of three primary reasons. First, the YMCA mission has always focused on a holistic approach of building up spirit, mind, and body. Second, the YMCA provides healthy living programs and activities to those that would otherwise not be able to afford such services by providing financial assistance to economically disadvantaged individuals. More than 1 out of every 4 YMCA members in 2018 participated through financial assistance. Third, the YMCA mission includes bringing all kinds of people together in a sense of community. Where else can a corporate CEO and an unemployed blue collar worker workout side by side on equal terms in true fellowship? Y programs that promoted healthy living included the Randy Travis Wellness Center, Helen Davis Wellness Center in Custer, group exercise, sports, aquatics and special events. Last year over 11,000 people of all ages, races, faiths, abilities, and economic backgrounds joined together in the Randy Travis Wellness Center in Rapid City and the Helen Davis Wellness Center in Custer for cardiovascular and strength training activities. Purposefully targeting individuals that desire to develop a healthy lifestyle, Y staff actively listen and then help participants remove roadblocks and set reasonable goals toward good health. This is all done in a friendly environment that is truly welcoming to all kinds of people. Plus, nearly 2,000 elementary and middle school aged kids participated in the Y Youth Wellness activities through afterschool and day camp programs. Group exercise helps people to join a small community and thus provide positive reinforcement toward getting and staying healthy. Ensuring that the instruction and environment was conducive to people from all backgrounds, last year there were over 3,100 people each month engaged in group exercise. With an emphasis on fun, building community, and promoting sportsmanship, there were over 400 adults who played in YMCA sports in 2018. YMCA sports included basketball, volleyball, racquetball and softball. Softball took place in fields operated by the YMCA in partnership with the City of Custer. YMCA adult sports effectively bring people from across the spectrum of the community together for positive and healthy activities. YMCA Aquatics programs promote good health through regular exercise. The YMCA pool also featured opportunities for hundreds of families to enjoy splashing around together. Lap swimming and water exercise rounded out the aquatics experience that helped nearly 1,100 adults make gains in building a healthy lifestyle. In response to growing concerns over chronic disease management, the YMCA provides evidence-based programs, such as Parkinson's Wellness, LiveStrong Cancer Survivor, and the Joint Efforts Arthritis Program. These programs reached over 200 adults this last year.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The YMCA is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The YMCA is not liable for income taxes if it operates within the confines of its exempt status. However, the YMCA may be responsible for taxes on unrelated business activities. In the event of an examination of the income tax returns, the tax liability of the YMCA could be changed if taxing authorities make adjustments to the tax-exempt purpose of the YMCA, or if the taxing authorities determine activities are subject to unrelated business income. As of December 31, 2018, the YMCA had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The YMCA's income tax filings are subject to audit by various taxing authorities. The YMCA is no longer subject to federal and state income tax examination by taxing authorities for years before 2015. Management continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitation, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings. The YMCA believes their estimates are appropriate based on current facts and circumstances. Interest and penalties assessed by income taxing authorities, if any, are included in interest expense. There were no penalties or interest assessed by taxing authorities during the year ended December 31, 2018.
