Part III, line 12: Other Income — "Unusual Grant" for year 2018.

In late 2017, BUILDING OHANA was working with a team of developers to secure land for an OHANA community. We began 2018 with enthusiasm, knowing our work had just begun in earnest. In early February, we were contacted by a pastor in Tulsa OK who knew about our work. One of his congregation had asked him to make donations to worthy nonprofit on his behalf, and the pastor mentioned our progress to him. This gentleman preferred not to be contacted by the recommended recipients, and then made a number of donations to various nonprofits. On Feb. 20th, we received 10 bitcoins valued by an online cryptocurrency exchange at $117,592.40. We sent him a donation acknowledgement letter on that day confirming receipt of the bitcoin, and naming the value. This was an unsolicited and unrestricted donation, and it's worth was totally unexpected. Within 10 days we contracted with Bitpay, a cryptocurrency exchange, to convert the Bitcoin into US currency. After an arduous process of application, we received the exchanged money into our Ohana Savings account on 3/3/18. The exchange value by that time had decreased to $10,995.96, reflecting the downward volatility of the currency ~~and~~ fee charged by Bitpay. We were asked not to contact the donor, as this would be a one-time contribution. At this filing, we respectfully submit this donation as an "Unusual Grant," as it meets almost every consideration for the category. Without this designation, our public support test for 2018 would fail.

990 EZ Part III: Primary Exempt Purpose — (also see www.buildingohana.org)

BUILDING OHANA iwas founded by individuals who are intimately familiar with the multiple, lifelong barriers affecting people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, barriers often visible from one's front porch. Our missionis to identify these barriers and adress them within the context of home and nieghborhood to build a diverse, inclusive and intergenerational community of intentional neighboring in Spokane, Wa.—one in which adults with Autism and I/DD will be supported through the lifecourse to thrive alongside their neighbors.

990 EZ Part III, Line 28 — OHANA Community Outreach, Education and Engagement: PEOPLE

Since our formation, OHANA has been building relationships with community stakeholders for partnerships and collaboration in the creation of this new market model for for supportive housing and neighborhood life. Our PEOPLE program involves families, professionals, educators, and business, agency and govt. leaders to help envision /design Ohana through community conversations/workshops. In 2018 we also spoke to social justice groups, religous orgs., university students, and the local chapter of National Professional Journalists on subjects of housing, equity and community inclusion. We helped plan and presented at three disabilities conferences on housing and health and support ssues for people with I/DD, and brought state and national experts to Spokane to present on current and emerging housing opportunities for affected individuals and families. We meet regularly with families and Individuals; our website received over 3,000 visitors in 2018; and, our newsletter typically reaches over 1000 people.

990 EZ part III, Line 29 — OHANA Researt, Design and Development: PLACE

In our PLACE program, OHANA and its advisory team of land planners, architects, developers and affordable and fair housing experts work to 1) research existing/emerging community models experts across the country; 2) assess property needs and explore universal and special design principles to augment independence, social relationships and accessibility across the lifespan and 3) formulate new public/private funding and development strategies to design and build the OHANA neighborhood model. IN 2018, we conducted three site visits of supportive communities and were invited to present OHANA at a national conference on Resilience at Rush Medical Center in Chicago. Much of the year was spent in predevelopment planning with national developer Newland Communities as as they sought to include our Ohana neighborhood within a larger masterplanned development in Spokane.

990 EZ Part III, Line 30 — OHANA Programs of Support : PROGRAMS

This portion of our work centers around developing sustainable practices for community formation and support. As in other programs we do this in concertn with local and national partners in the disability and housing worlds. With the Arc's Home Affordable Home Ownership expertise we created Pathways to Residency, a decision model planner to help families understand hot they might choosc life in Ohana. With other partners we are developing Ohana CC and R's to help preserve and maintain the intentions and agreements with future residents.
