Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
 North Country Food Alliance (NCFA) is dedicated to eliminating food waste, increasing access to fresh produce, and sharing food with people in need in the Twin Cities Metro. We rescue food (mostly fresh produce) that local businesses conventionally waste due to overstock and safely transport it to food shelves and shelters across the Metro Area. We educate and engage communities directly through our food donation gardens, in which folks from the neighborhood help tend to the plants and eat as much from the garden as they'd like for free. Any excess produce is delivered to local food shelves. We also have a community meals program, in which we partner with community kitchens to help provide hot meals to vulnerable populations.

Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

Community meals: We decided that our original plan of establishing a food truck to serve free hot meals was beyond our capacity to manage. Instead, we sold our food truck and reinvested the profits in a scaled-down community meals program. We leveraged our connections with local community centers and nonprofit organizations to collaborate with community kitchens already in existence to cook and serve free food on a regular basis. This resulted in one event cooking for the Lyndale Community Dinner, a weekly pay-what-you-can community meal in South Minneapolis. We then connected with House of Charity, a local shelter and soup kitchen, to recruit volunteers to assist with preparing and serving food. We successfully partnered with House of Charity Food Center for three community meals in February. We planned to continue this relationship, but at the onset of the COVID-19 outbreak decided to pause this program.

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The outreach and education program has over 40,000 conversations in the Twin Cities Metro raising awareness of commercial food waste. These conversations don't just affect people's view of the world but also drive fellow community members into action. Business owners, store managers, farmers, gardeners, and other people participate with the foodshare, community garden, and community meals program because of their contact with canvassers. In addition we find and start communication with local nonprofit workers that guide the focus of our work. Our other programs are informed by the outreach program. We educate our neighbors and they return in kind.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Foodshare: We partner with businesses metro wide including but not limited to: grocery stores, food co-ops, distributors, and food production facilities. We take the perishable food products such as fresh produce, meat, bread, dairy, that these businesses know they would have to waste without our help. Our workers ensure rapid and safe transportation of the food to be used by Twin Cities nonprofits every weekday. We give this food away completely free of charge to food shelves, shelters, and other nonprofits, allowing them to concentrate their resources where they are needed. Last year, we rescued 311,681 pounds of food and delivered it to 49 different groups that serve people who face food insecurity.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Garden: We plant gardens in neighborhoods with restricted access to fresh produce. These gardens give people the opportunity to learn how to grow their own healthy food and provide free produce to folks in the neighborhood. This year, we broke ground at a new community garden at a public housing site in South Minneapolis. This large garden site was stewarded by Youth Farm for decades. In 2019, Youth Farm discontinued their programs in South Minneapolis, and we were pleased to partner with the Minneapolis Public Housing Authority in order to continue to ensure the flourishing of this great space. We also manage a garden in North Minneapolis, which has grown to house 16 circular raised beds and 16 rectangular ones. This is the largest it's been since its founding in 2017.
