Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY (CONTINUED)	The Board Chair or designee shall make such further investigation of any conflict of inter est disclosures as he or she may deem appropriate. If the conflict involves the Board Chair, the Vice Chair will assume the Chair's role outlined in the COI Policy. Based on review and evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances, the Board Chair will make an initial determination as to whether a conflict of interest exists and whether, pursuant to the COI Policy, review and approval or other action by the Board is required. A written record of the Board Chair's determination, including relevant facts and circumstances, will be made. The Board Chair shall then make an appropriate report to the Executive Committee of the Board concerning such review, evaluation and determination. If a difference of opinion exists between the Board Chair and another Trustee as to whether the facts and circumstances of a given situation constitute a conflict of interest or whether Board review and approval or other action is required within the COI Policy, the matter shall be submitted to the Board's Executive Committee, which shall make a final determination as to the matter presented. Such determination, including relevant facts and circumstances, will be reflected in the Executive Committee minutes and will be reported to the Board. The Board shall ca refully scrutinize and must in good faith approve or disapprove any transaction in which C HI or a CHI Entity is a party and in which the Trustee or Corporate Officer either. Has a material financial interest, or I is a Trustee or Corporate Officer of the other party (other than a CHI-affiliated organization). The Board must approve the transaction by a majority of the Trustees on the Board, without counting the vote of any individual who has an interest in the transaction. In reviewing such transaction will not be approved unless the Board det ermines that the transaction is fair to CHI or the CHI Entity. The Board shall carefully review and scrutinize any non-transactional conflict o

The Trustee shall not vote and the Trustee or Corporate Officer shall not use his or her personal infl uence on the matter. However, if requested, such Trustee or Corporate Officer is not preve nted from briefly stating his or her position in the matter, nor from answering pertinent questions from Trustees, as his or her knowledge may be of significant importance. The Tru stee or Corporate Officer shall be excused from the meeting during discussion and vote on the conflict of interest. Minutes of the Board shall reflect the following the individual making the disclosure, the nature of the disclosure, discussion regarding any proposed triansaction, the decision made by the Board, and that the interested Trustee or Corporate Officer was excused during the discussion, and that the interested Trustee abstained from voiting. If the Board reasonably believes that a Trustee or Corporate Officer has failed to disclose either an actual or potential conflict of interest, or all material facts surrounding an actual or possible conflict as required by the COI Policy, the Trustee or Corporate Officer will be given an opportunity to explain such alleged failure to disclose After his earing the response of the Trustee or Corporate Officer, the Board will conduct such additional investigation as may be appropriate. If the Board determines that the Trustee or Corporate Officer has in fact failed to disclose as required by the COI Policy, the Board shall take appropriate disciplinary or corrective action. Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Catholic Health Initiatives ("CHI") has a Conflicts of Interest ("COI") policy (the "Polic y") in place to maintain the integrity of all of its activities. The Policy applies to CHI Board of Stewardship Trustees and members of its committees, all CHI Entity board and board committee members, all CHI employees, and all CHI research personnel (both employed and non-employed). Disclosure, review and management of perceived, potential or actual conflicts of interest are accomplished through a defined COI disclosure process. Each Person must promptly and fully disclose to his/her direct manager, supervisor, medical staff office, board or board committee chair any situation or circumstance that may create a conflict of interest. The Person must disclose the actual or potential conflict as soon as she/he be comes aware of it. In any situation where the Person my be in doubt, a full disclosure should be made to permit an impartial and objective determination. In addition to the general ongoing obligation, there are initial disclosure obligations. At the time of initial app ointment, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to the board or committee member will complete and submit the disclosure. The completed disclosure shall be maintained in confidence and access shall be limited to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. At the time of hiring, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to all Employees in addition, a con flict of interest disclosure will be provided. The Employee must complete and submit a con flict of interest disclosure. The completed disclosure shall be immitted to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. In addition to the general ongoing and initial disclosure obligations, there is an annual disclosure obligation. On an annual basis, the following Persons must complete a new conflict of interest disclosure. *Board and board committee members, *Employees at the level of vice president and above, *Researchers *Supply Chain Employees at the level of vice president a

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	is the ultimate decision-maker or holds significant influence over the ultimate decision-maker (i.e., degree of independence of the decision-making process), the unique nature of the opportunity, transaction or arrangement, the existence of other viable alternatives and the quality of those alternatives, and what is customary and reasonable in the health care or research industry. When a Person has, or is considering intitating, a business interiest or relationship outside of CHI but is uncertain whether the interest constitutes a con flict of interest requiring disclosure under this Policy, the Person should consult with I ocal Corporate Responsibility Program (CRP) staff or CHI Legal Services Group (LSG) staff, as appropriate. As appropriate, a COI management plan will be developed. With respect to those audiences for which the C-CIRC has review responsibility, the C-CIRC will facilitate development of any such COI management plan in collaboration with local CRP staff or CHI LSG staff, as appropriate. This plan will include documentation of the C-CIRC's determinations and recommendations. As necessary, reports to an appropriate governmental agency or s ponsor will be made according to the relevant appendices to this Policy to provide required information regarding how the conflict of interest will be managed, reduced, or eliminate de Designated CHI Entity staff are responsible for monitoring the COI management plan and for documenting monitoring activities. At its sole discretion, a CHI Entity may reject a Person's request to enter into the relationship in question, or require the relationship be sufficiently altered to avoid a potential conflict of interest. It may recommend that the disclosing Person be allowed to participate in the activity or transaction subject to restrictions as outlined in a written COI management plan. All determinations of conflict so interest will be reported as required by law, regulations, and CHI policy if a Person, other than a board or board committee member or corporate office

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	erson's manager individually or in consultation with the manager's Vice President (or high er if the manager is a Vice President) finds that new information supporting reconsideration has been presented, the manager will contact local or National CRP staff, as appropriate, and request that the matter be re-presented to the C-CIRC. The C-CIRC will be reconvened for this purpose and, following such reconsideration, issue a final determination. This appeals process is intended to be narrowly applied, as Persons seeking conflict of interes t exemptions or exceptions are expected to offer all available information supporting an exemption or exception at the time the matter is first presented to the C-CIRC. Management of actual or potential conflicts of interest of board or board committee members and corporate officers will be determined by the appropriate board, as reflected in the Policy. Rev iews and determinations involving board and board committee members and corporate officers will be the responsibility of the board, board executive committee, or board chair, with guidance from the Legal Services Group (LSG). Each Trustee and Corporate Officer must prom ptly and fully report to the Board Chair situations that may create a conflict of interest when he or she becomes aware of such situations. In any situation when a Trustee or Corpo rate Officer is in doubt, full disclosure should be made to permit an impartial and object ive determination. A written record of the disclosure will be made. In addition to the ongoing disclosure obligation, all Trustees and Corporate Officers shall complete a COI disclosure questionnaire on an annual basis. A copy of the COI Policy shall be available to Tru stees and Corporate Officer must promptly complete the C OI disclosure. The disclosures will be reviewed by the CHI Senior Vice President, Legal Services, and General Counsel or his or her designee who will report potential conflicts to the applicable Board Chair.
