N2N volunteers never give direct funds to homeless individuals. All support is in the form of vouchers, or in specific cases an N2N volunteer will accompany the guest to what ever vendor, business or agency for which support has been given, and pay that cost directly, e.g., when paying for an identification card from DMV, or obtaining a birth certificate. Guests staying at the Warming Station are required to be homeless, but no verification process is used to determine this other than their own word. Veda's Breakfast and Day Center are open to anyone who says they are in need, although vouchers are reserved for homeless.
