Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Participants who are moving out of homelessness and other crisis situations into affordable housing are referred to greeNest by various agencies in the area who determine that individuals are in need of home furnishings. The agency and/or the participant pays greeNest for a specified point value of furnishings to be selected by the participant. The participant then selects furnishings from the warehouse. Staff document these selections on a Participant Furnishing Receipt form. Participant is responsible for delivery of furnishings to their new address. The excess fair market value of furnishings provided over the amount paid by the partnering agency and/or the participant is recorded as support to individuals.
