Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Health and Food Programs: Our Health & Food initiatives are broad efforts to increase access to healthy and culturally-relevant foods in order to prevent negative health outcomes and to strengthen regional food systems. Food distributions in southern Arizona was through our mobile distribution sites and our locations in Tucson, Amado, Green Valley, Marana, Willcox, and Nogales, and through our network of 200+ partner agencies. 344,668 senior meals and 102,590 community meals were distributed through our Caridad Community Kitchen and 200,495 unique individuals were served through our two major USDA programs: The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) and the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP). Health disparities can largely be attributed to unequal access to healthy foods, in which socio-economic factors such as race, gender, income, and location of residence play a role. For food insecure populations, lack of access to healthy food often results in a wide variety of negative health outcomes like increased incidence and prevalence of diabetes, poor management of certain behavioral conditions, and social isolation. Our health and food efforts work across our service area to provide nutritious, culturally relevant foods to those who are experiencing hunger and adverse health outcomes. Our community health care partnerships help advance regional policy and has the potential to inform national policy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Educational Programs: We believe resources and opportunities are inequitably distributed between communities, and that education can help build a bridge out of poverty toward improved socio-economic conditions. Our education initiatives promote learning and social connection through the facilitation of skill building, engagement, career readiness, and leadership development. In the past fiscal year, we gave over $268,000 in monetary capacity-building grants to partner organizations. 16 culinary students were trained in our culinary kitchen, totaling 3,130 hours. Our Farm to Child program has educated 430 students and 30 teachers to create and tend to on campus school gardens, and has trained over 20,500 hours in the area of garden and nutrition. Nuestra Tierra Garden hosted trainings for 372 community members for a total of 3300 training hours in food production education, soil fertility and community garden management trainings. Las Milpitas Community Farm has delivered 17,740 training hours of farm production training in greenhouse maintenance, food production and cultivation, food justice issues and community farm management to 2,150 program participants and community members. All 73+ plots are full supporting families and small producers. Our education efforts, based on the expressed needs of the community served, build confidence and teach skills that are technical, communicative, and transformative. Our efforts are grounded in the principles of cultural relevancy, self-determination, and social inclusion. 1,939 adults and 520 families participated in nutrition and health education and school pantry nutrition education projects, we provided 2,300 hours of skills and leadership education to 200 partner institutions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Development Programs: We believe hunger and poverty are outcomes of broader systems and local policies that create a sense of powerlessness, resource inequity, and issues of under or over representation. Our community development work focuses on groups, organizations, and governments to create opportunities for change in these systems. We use initiatives that increase the capacity, engagement, and self-determination of community members and organizations to determine, enact, and sustain solutions to systemic problems and local issues. In the past fiscal year, we gave over $337,000 in monetary grants to partner organization to maintain or increase services, quality, or community engagement for a healthy, hunger-free community. We recognized $28,000 in SNAP and SNAP-match sales at farmer's markets and assisted 150 local producers to engage in economic opportunities. 35% of total direct-to-consumer sales at market were in Public Assistance benefits. We saw $316,500 generated through local food sales, which equated to $589,000 generated in the local economy. Within our community development efforts, we engage in three key tasks: empowerment, capacity building, and resilience. Through funding, technical assistance, and leadership development, we help to build resilient groups that are better able to weather storms and maintain healthy communities as new leaders develop and new needs arise.

Part X, Line 2:	The Organization is exempt from federal and state income taxes under the Federal Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") Section 510(c)(3) and Arizona income tax laws, and is classified as other than a private foundation under IRC Section 509(a)(1). The Organization also qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(a). Management has considered its tax positions in accordance with the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes and believes that all of the positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. In addition, Management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. The Organizations's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed. Should the Organization ever be subject to interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits, they would be classified in management and general expenses in its accompanying financial statements. During the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, the Organization did not recognize any interest and penalties.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	All grants are awarded based on the grantee's capacity to carry out the project, financial soundness of the organization and the specific criteria of the grant. During the current year we had two main grant initiatives. The Punch Woods Endowment Grants are limited to supporting Community Food Security programs. A panel of food bank staff and community leaders review applications from eligible 501(c)(3) organizations. Depending on the number of applicants and fund requested, any number of applications may be funded until the funds are depleted. This is an annual process and all awardees are chosen and paid at one time. In addition to the Punch Woods grants, we also award agency capacity building grants. Agency capacity building grants are awarded agencies who have or will partner with the food bank or who's impact on the community compliments the food bank's mission. These awards are designed to improve an organization's long-term ability to serve its constituency, increase the quality of its programs or meet compliance standards allowing continued service as a food bank partner. The applications for these grants are reviewed by staff members and awarded as needed throughout the year. Depending on the use of the funding, staff will either observe the outputs in person or receive evaluative reports from the grantees in order to monitor the use of the funds.
Sch I, Part III, Line 1	The Organization uses a proprietary software program to track receipt of non-cash grants by individuals. The State sets parameters for eligibility for certain programs which the Organization also tracks through specialized software. The Organization uses monitoring to track non-cash grants used by its agencies. This monitoring covers both requirements of the granting agency and those imposed by the Organization itself. Monitoring is logged in paper and electronic files, depending on the requirement.
