Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

During 2016, FFT again conducted its Backpack program. This program discreetly provides a nutritious bag of food each Friday to children attending our local schools. These children participate in free and reduced meal programs during the school week, but are at risk for food insecurity on the weekend. Each food bag is placed in the child's backpack for weekend consumption. The food provided is kid friendly and requires no refrigeration, stoves, dishes, or flatware. During the 2016 calendar year, FFT provided 12,517 bags of food through this program. This program started in 2006.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

During the school break June 6, 2016 through August 19, 2016 FFT conducted the Summer Food Service Program SFSP. This program provided free meals to children ages 2-18 Monday-Friday at three serving locations. These locations were selected due to their proximity to elementary schools with high incidences of students receiving free meals during the school year. Consequently, the children receiving meals through the SFSP are likely the same children participating in the school meal programs. During this period 7,983 free meals and 3,920 snacks were served at these three sites. Without this program, these children might not have received adequate nutrition during the school break. This was the 5th year we have conducted this program.
