Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Used Clothing Drive Beginning in October, area law firms, corporations, and other entities with ties to the Washington DC legal community ask their employees to donate used clothing. Donations are also received from individuals in the community who are not associated with these organizations or the legal community. The clothing is collected by each participating entity during the first weekend of December. Volunteers sort donated clothing, organize the fulfillment of clothing requests from homeless support organizations, and deliver requested clothing to facilities that serve the homeless. The entire process is completed during a three-day weekend.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

New clothing purchases The organization purchases socks, underwear, hats, gloves, sweats, jackets, and other items from wholesalers and donates these items to Washington DC-area homeless support organizations. GFTH makes these new clothing donations primarily during the late fall and winter, in order to allow homeless support organizations to provide warm clothing to the homeless population they serve. GFTH collects funds to purchase new clothing from individuals and corporations throughout the year, including the winter Clothing Drive and a "Battle of the Law Firms Bands" contest each summer.
