Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Used Clothing Drive Beginning in October, area law firms, corporations, and other entities with ties to the Washington, DC legal community ask their employees to donate used clothing, blankets, toiletries, and related items and to make monetary contributions for the purchase of new clothing and blankets. Other individuals in the community who are not associated with these organizations or the legal community also provide donations for the purchase of new clothing and blankets. Each participating entity collects used clothing, toiletries, blankets, and related items during the first weekend of December. Volunteers sort these donated items and assist in delivering these items to homeless support organizations in the Washington DC area. The entire process occurs during a three-day weekend.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

New clothing purchases The organization purchases socks, underwear, hats, gloves, sweatshirts and sweatpants, jackets, and other items from wholesalers and donates these items to Washington DC-area homeless support organizations. GFTH makes these new clothing donations primarily during the late fall and winter, in order to allow homeless support organizations to provide warm clothing to the homeless population they serve. GFTH collects funds to purchase new clothing and blankets from wholesale suppliers throughout the year, including the winter Clothing Drive and a "Battle of the Law Firms Bands" concert each summer.
