Facts And Circumstances Test

FACTS-AND-CIRCUMSTANCES TEST City First Foundation (formerly known as City First Community) was established in 1994 with a single purpose to close the economic gap of low-income neighborhoods by creating a financial institution and other services solely focused on community development. Community development leaders in the Washington DC area had gathered to address concerns about the toll on low-income neighborhoods from decades of disinvestment and discrimination due to lack of access to credit and other financial services. From this gathering, these community leaders envisioned a financial institution to help these "forgotten" neighborhoods. Created to promote and sustain economic and social health in targeted low and moderate income neighborhoods in the District of Columbia, its primary activity is bringing together practitioners, developers, policy makers, government officials and philanthropists to discuss how best to promote healthy communities, economic development and workforce enhancements. The primary sources of support for CFFs activity comes from local/regional mission-oriented individuals, partnerships and corporations dedicated to community development through expansion of economic growth, accessibility to capital and/or basic services in/to under-served communities. In 2012, the governing board of CFF saw a need to assemble the noted participants in a collaborative effort to address the economic deficiencies in DC and decided to host an annual community development conference for public benefit. By 2016, public/community interest and public participation had grown significantly and in an effort to leverage this heightened interest and maintain continuance of this public service during periods of uncertainty, City First Bank provided an additional donation of $200,000. This contribution results in CFF failing to meet the 1/3 public support test in both 2018 and 2019. Public support, however, is 29.46% in 2019 and 30.50% in 2018, very close to 1/3 and significantly above 10%. Without this influx of support the public support percentage would be approximately 70%. In support of the public nature of the organization we provide that. 1. Support is from a number of unrelated donors, with a one-time larger contribution from CFB to support a specific objective. 2. The organization maintains a definitive program for accomplishing its charitable work and provides services directly for the benefit of the general public on a continuous basis. 3. The activities of the organization are likely to appeal to persons with broad common interests or purposes and support a charitable class in need. Also, a large percentage of CFFs support overall is derived from a broad base of financial institutions and/or businesses that are aligned with CFFs mission with long-term ties to/significant participation in the U.S. Treasury Departments Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund - a program designed to generate economic growth, promote revitalization and opportunities in distressed communities. And while this support is not directly from a government unit, this support does directly support this governmental program activity and consequently provide services that relieve the government.
