Name: DEVELOPING FAMILIES CENTER INC

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 274,566 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

The developing families center models hallmarks are comprehensive services and continuity of care for predominately African-American childbearing and childrearing families residing largely in Wards 5, 7, and 8 in the District of Columbia. It is a unique model of service delivery under one roof that places maternity care in its social context with an out-of-hospital birth center at its core. A range of complementary services, including well woman care for women of all ages, adult primary health care, childrens primary health care to 21 years of age, family resource and support services, including home visiting, case management, parenting and childbirth education classes and a full day early childhood education center with 6 classrooms for infants and toddlers. Health care is provided by advanced nurse practitioners with appropriate physician back-up. Child development associates and early education teachers provide classroom learning and parent support. The model supports peer education through group pre-natal care, breastfeeding peer counselors, a focus on fathers, and fathers to be. The model emphasizes collaboration, community engagement/community-based participatory research, wellness, and enhancing the resilience of the families served.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Center is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code except for unrelated business income earned. There was no unrelated business income activities during the year ended December 31, 2015. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Center may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Center and positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business income tax (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits related to uncertain tax positions identified or recorded as liabilities for the year ended December 31, 2015. The Centers policy would be to recognize interest and penalties, if any, on tax positions related to its unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense in the financial statements. No interest and penalties were assessed or recorded during the year ended December 31, 2015. The Centers Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, that have been filed as of December 31, 2015, for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, and 2012, are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they were filed.
