Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 15a	A sub-committee of the board was established to do a comparison of what other like organizations pay their executive directors. The committee researched agencies like the Washington Council of Agencies, etc. In addition, they consulted with other legal entities for the appropriateness of the contract. After an in-depth comparison was done, the committee presented the board with a proposal that was in line with other like positions. The board moved to accept the proposal. Finally, the board presented the proposal to the Executive Director for further discussion. A contract was executed.
