Form 990, Part II, This Return is being filed late. The taxpayer hired a CPA whom, unbeknowance to us, became extremely ill during the engagement. It was discovered recently that the 2014 return had not been prepared or electronically filed. We thought the return had been filed. After finding out how gravely ill he had become, we hired the current CPA. He discovered last week that the return had not been filed and expedited the preparation and filing of this late return. We ask the Internal Revenue Service to wave the penalty for late filing as this had never happend in the past. Our current accountant also discovered that the extension for the tax year ended September 31, 2016 has not been prepared due to the above same circumstance. We are in the process of having the return prepared and expect to file the return at the end of January 2017. We ask lenency from the Internal Revenue Service as any fund used to pay any penalty are funds which will not be used for our Veterans in Marion County.
