assistance to avert eviction or utilities shutoffs, and other safety-net services. During fiscal year 2020, Cornerstones provided street outreach, emergency shelter and hypothermia prevention for a total of 770 people, including 100 families and 214 children. We helped families avert financial crisis and offset the high cost of living, providing food, gift cards, diapers and household supplies to 1,748 (unduplicated) households, representing 5,547 people this year - 2,721 of them children and youth. Cornerstones' ability to quickly mobilize and scale programs was critical to protecting our community during the Coronavirus pandemic that completely overshadowed the last three months of our fiscal year. In Cornerstones' five decades of service in Northern Virginia, never have we seen something with such immediate impact on all families and affecting all community sectors. Cornerstones worked with Fairfax County to convert a hotel to provide a safe space for people who are homeless or living in unsafe housing to isolate or recover after being diagnosed with COVID-19. The Assistance Services and Food Pantry Program staff provided safe, no-contact distribution of fresh produce, pantry staples, and personal protection equipment (PPE) items from parking lots, frequently in conjunction with Health Department's COVID-19 testing events. Although limited in their traditional support roles due to safety protocols, dedicated volunteers continue to help us tend to the needs of individuals and seniors unable to leave their homes. In just the first three months of the pandemic (April-June 2020), 621 households received food pantry assistance from Cornerstones for the first time, a 216% increase over the same period in 2019. Overall, Cornerstones provided $200,000 in rent and utility assistance and $41,000 in grocery and department store gift cards to supplement around resources to help families and individuals gain stability and thrive. These programs include an affordable housing rental program, youth services that include quality, developmental childcare for low-income working parents and after school enrichment and STEAM activities, employment readiness and job coaching, housing and home ownership counseling, community and neighborhood resource centers in low-income neighborhoods. US citizenship preparation and our signature community care management program that help people navigate and obtain vital human resources and self-sufficiency resources. Through our affiliate housing organization, Cornerstones provided affordable rental housing and care management services to 129 households, waiving late fees and securing rental assistance for those who lost jobs or became ill

Empowerment: Cornerstones is unique as a safety net provider in that programs offer ongoing support and counsel after the crisis is passed, through client-driven, wrap-during the pandemic. We continue to actively seek opportunities to partner in, develop, or purchase apartment communities. During FY20 Cornerstones, Inc. entered into a joint venture agreement with Wellington Development, LLC, an experienced private developer of affordable housing, to develop affordable workforce and permanent supportive housing in Loudoun County, Virginia and referred to as Tuscarora Crossing. Cornerstones Housing Corporation, Cornerstones' affordable housing affiliate, will collaborate in the work on this project. The pandemic forced the temporary closure of programs located in government buildings and community sites, affecting our childcare center, after-school, food pantry and community centers programs. Knowing the importance of these essential programs. Cornerstones guickly responded, re-imagining and redesigning front-line services to engage people safely, and equip our teams with tools to recreate programs virtually. Laurel Learning Center safely re-opened as a critical childcare resource for low-income working parents and essential workers, opening a special school day program to bridge the digital divide and support students in distance learning. Youth afterschool programs reinvented programming virtually for kids and parents to support homework and avoid learning loss together these programs served 239 youth and their families. Cornerstones provided the backbone technology for neighborhood ambassadors to create a peer support network for parents and seniors in change includes engaging and amplifying the voices of our low-income neighbors and clients. Cornerstones leads Opportunity Neighborhoods in Reston and Herndon, collaborative community-partnerships designed to promote success for children and youth. This effort includes engaging local leaders and advocating for more connections between school, neighborhoods, and community services. We provided organizing support in low-income housing communities to help residents improve their environment and access needed services. In the wake of the pandemic, Cornerstones convened virtual events for families in low-income neighborhoods, inviting partners who could advocate for policies that address the root causes of poverty and in particular the stark lack of affordable housing in the DC region. Cornerstones' CEO co-chairs the Fairfax County Affordable Housing Advisory Committee, overseeing the development of a County-wide Housing Strategic Plan. She was recently awarded the Leadership Fairfax Institute's Nonprofit Leader award honoring leaders who have made a significant impact through a passionate commitment to community partnerships and volunteer service, and to furthering Leadership Fairfax's mission to convene meaningful discussions and strategic thinkers to address community issues. CHC's Executive Vice President works line 12c	or actual conflict of interest. Board members are required to report conflicts of interest when issues are before the Board. CEO reviews the conflict statements regularly.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	On an annual basis, the Chairperson of the Board appoints a task force or members of the B oard to facilitate the CEO performance review. The Chairperson of his/her designee facilit ates the annual performance evaluation, seeking input from the CEO, Board, staff and stake holders using agency evaluation tools, as assisted by the Human Resources Director. If per formance or market conditions warrant a change in compensation, the Chairperson or his/her designee works with the Chief Financial Officer and Human Resources Director to gather in formation to guide the decision. Information that is regularly used includes market-based compensation survey data for the region and, when available, information obtained from Hum an Resources Directors of nonprofits of similar size and complexity. Upon completion of the evaluation, the Chairperson or his/her designee presents a report on performance and compensation to the Board of Directors. The meeting may be held in Executive Session. If approved by a simple majority of the Board members present, the Board Chair completes a person nel action form which is the formal record of the action. If a change in compensation or o ther action is required, the Board may adjourn the executive session and the formal record of the action is recorded contemporaneously in the minutes of the meeting. The Executive Committee will oversee a comparison of compensation awarded and that reported on the agenc y's 990 form on an annual basis. A similar process is followed by the CEO for the review a nd compensation of EO's executive leadership team or highly compensated executives.
