Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	CCDOC is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is generally exempt from federal and state income taxes. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America prescribe a minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. Although these principles are primarily applicable to taxable business enterprises, an uncertain tax position may also include the characterization of income, such as a characterization of income as passive, a decision to exclude reporting taxable income in a tax return, or a decision to classify a transaction, entity, or other position in a tax return as exempt. The tax benefit from uncertain tax positions is recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions or any related appeals or litigation processes, based on technical merits. CCDOC had no unrecognized tax positions as of and during the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016. CCDOC does not expect that unrecognized tax benefits will materially increase within the next 12 months. Fiscal year 2014 and thereafter are subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities. There are no income tax examinations currently in process. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, would be recognized in the financial statements as income tax expense.
