Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission To work with the community to end domestic and sexual violence through advocacy, education, support and prevention.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 553,391 including grants of $) (Revenue $) Crisis intervention services involves all services that strive to address the critical time in the aftermath of victimization or the reporting of the crime. The 24-hr crisis lines (English & Spanish) serve as the gateway to all of DCRC's services. There callers can receive emotional support, information, safety planning and referrals. They can be connected with other services such as counseling and assessed for emergency shelter. In FY17, the crisis line responded to a approximately 3,000 calls. Some 114 victims of sexual assault were met at area hospitals for support during forensic examinations, while 176 domestic violence victims received medical support services. Overall, the agency assisted 218 persons for sexual assault related crimes and 652 for domestic violence. DCRC hosted 533 individual sessions and 118 group sessions that were guided by staff and student interns.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 250,361 including grants of $) (Revenue $) DCRC operates a temporary emergency shelter offering women and children who are fleeing violent homes a safe and supportive environment. In FY17, 166 women and children were provided shelter. We were unable to shelter 146 others whose circumstances made them eligible for services because we lacked the space. This number reflects only adults; not the children who might have come with them. DCRC offers a transitional housing program designed to help families safely and effectively move into violence-free living. Through the program they can receive counseling, financial literacy education, employability skills training and other educational programming. Clients are able to select their own housing within the community as a means of promoting self-empowerment.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 249,147 including grants of $) (Revenue $) Legal advocacy continues to be an integral part of DCRC's programming. In FY16, we opened the Durham Family Justice Center, a "one-stop shop" concept whereby victims are able to receive a variety of services in one location. Located in the courthouse, victims receive support as they work through the criminal and civil justice systems. Advocates and volunteers assist them with reporting to law enforcement, offer court accompaniment, case management, filing protective orders, filing for victim compensation, and other services. Bilingual services are also a part of this component. In FY17, DCRC assisted in 558 cases and helped redefine policies & procedures. DCRC continues to commemorate Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Months and other outreach and awareness programming.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses 1,052,899
