Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Mens Education Program MSV directly intervenes with more than 2,000 men per year through telephone contacts, orientation classes, basic domestic violence education classes and more in-depth 24-week classes. Classes are provided for men who need to learn ways to be in relationships without using emotional, physical or other forms of abuse. Reliable data including police reports, witness statements and emergency room reports indicate that men are the aggressors in over 75 percent of incidents of interpersonal violence. Many cases go unreported and many more behaviors that men use should be incorporated into the category of abusive behavior. In fact, many men who come to MSV have never physically struck another person in a relationship. They have, however, used a wide range of controlling and abusive behaviors over a sustained period of time establishing a pattern and climate of fear.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Training and Community Education MSV provides an average of 30 presentations each year to religious institutions, colleges, schools, criminal justice organizations, other nonprofits, corporations, government agencies, civic organizations and media. Having delivered training and consultation in forty-plus states, Washington DC, Europe, Asia, Africa, Canada, and the Caribbean, MSV understands that each community and organization faces unique challenges. Our diverse and skilled training team is prepared to meet the needs of the organization or community making the request.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The MSV Internship Program is primarily for young men who are interested in being active allies in the work to end violence against women. MSV provides mentors, male and female, that demonstrate how to deconstruct long-held notions of manhood and support young men while they do the hard work of self-examination and advocacy. This intense, two-part experience combines theory and practice. Interns participate in all activities of MSV in community with other men, while working with battered women's advocates to keep the reality of violence against women before them.
