Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CASA volunteers serve as the eyes and ears of the court. They gather information from anyone who may be able to shed light on the child's situation. The CASA volunteer attends court proceedings and makes an independent recommendation to the judge about what is in the child's best interests -- bringing a sense of urgency to the child's needs. As a community partner in the child welfare system, a CASA volunteer increases a child's access to services, promotes safety, and advocates for timeliness and permanency for children involved in juvenile court proceedings. The CASA volunteer remains involved until the case is permanently resolved to keep the focus on the child. Georgia CASA's mission is to develop and support affiliate CASA programs throughout the state. Currently, 47 affiliate CASA programs exist, serving 151 of Georgia's 159 counties and 48 of 49 judicial circuits. Georgia CASA strives to provide its affiliate programs with the services they need so all children can receive the highest quality of advocacy possible from their CASA volunteers. CASA programs work directly with CASA volunteers as they recruit, train, screen and supervise them.

Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization recognizes the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. As of June 30, 2018 and 2017, there are no known items which would result in a material accrual related to where the Organization has federal or state attributable tax positions. Generally, taxing authorities have until the later of three years from the filing date or due date of the filing to examine a return.
