Reports conservation easements (Part II, line 9)	Easements acquired by the Organization are conservation easements and represent numerous restrictions over the use and development of land not owned by the Organization. As these easements have no marketable value, they are not recorded as assets on the statement of financial position. All easements acquired by purchase are expensed as development rights on the statement of functional expenses. ALT monitors activities on the land easements and enforces restrictions. ALT requests a stewardship donation from each donor for conservation easements. Stewardship donations are invested in ALT's conservation stewardship fund to provide for future expenses of monitoring, enforcing, and defense of the conservation easements in perpetuity.
