Return Reference	Explanation
Additional Information for Schedule I	(1) The EFSP grant is for meals provided in our program. In 2018, we provided 8397 meals to the 41 individuals in our program. (2) Number of Recipients - Undetermined. Amount of Noncash Assistance - Undetermined. Family Promise assists clients by providing food, car repairs, medical supplies, school supplies for children, clothing for job interviews or special clothing or tools needed for jobs. Donated materials, services, equipment and supplies, if material, are reflected as contributions in the accompanying statements at their estimated value at the date of notification. Family Promise receives numerous small donations of household items, supplies, clothing and other miscellaneous donations. The individual value of these items has not been determined and therefore not included in the 990 and accompanying schedules. (continued next pg) (2) continued. To the extent that the organization receives extensive donations, that normally the Organization would have to purchase items such as clothing for guests, work and school supplies, and post program housing needs, program services appear lower in proportion to general and administrative expenses had such items been valued and recorded in the financial statements.
