990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
PART IV LINE 6	Prior to November 1, 2015, the Organization acted as the management company for a number of affiliated public charities which were health care providers, all of which were listed by name as supported organizations in the Organization's governing documents. On October 30, 2015, one of those entities (RHA Health Services, Inc.) disaffiliated itself from the Organization through election of an unrelated board of directors, and hence ceased to be a Supported Organization as defined in the organization's governing documents. On the same date, the remaining health care companies sold all their operations (with one exception) to an unrelated entity and ceased to do business. The lone exception was RHG/ North Carolina MR, Inc., which retained one housing facility for disabled persons and continues to be supported by the Organization. The other former health care companies, while technically still classified as public charities and under common control with the Organization, no longer have any operations and are not supported by the Organization. In addition to naming certain health care companies as Supported Organizations (subject to the caveat that they must remain public charities and under common control), the Organization's governing documents also listed as Supporting Organizations "Other organizations which are involved in the provision of health care services or provision of housing for the elderly, infirm or disabled" (subject to the same two caveats re having to be publicly charities and under common control). There are two other public charities which have the same board of directors and officers as the Organization and which are involved in housing elderly and infirm persons: Resource Housing Group, Inc. and RHG/Affordable Housing II, Inc. Both are now supported by the Organization and are listed in Part I of Schedule A as supported organizations, along with RHG/North Carolina MR, Inc. The Organization is holding its fund balance for the benefit of these supported organizations.
