Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Miami Homes For All works to address the affordable housing crisis in Miami-Dade. We create the space to have authentic conversations about not only problems, but solutions. Our research and policy recommendations are aimed at creating new homes affordable to those earning a wide range of incomes, preserving existing housing stock and keeping people and families in the homes they already have. This work complements the traditional work of the organization advocating for the rights and quality of life of those experiencing homelessness.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code and Chapter 220 13, Florida Statutes, respectively. As a result, no income tax provision or liability has been provided in the accompanying financial statements. The Organization has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under IRC Section 509(a). In the unlikely event an uncertain tax provision exists in which the Organization could incur income taxes, the Organization would evaluate whether there is a probability that the uncertain tax provision taken would be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority. Reserves for uncertain tax positions would then be recorded if the Organization determined that it is probable that either a position would not be sustained upon examination or if a payment would have to be made to a taxing authority and the amount was reasonably estimable. As of June 30, 2018 and 2017, the Organization does not believe it has any uncertain tax positions that would result in the Organization having a liability to a taxing authority. The Organization is generally no longer subject to federal or state tax examinations for tax years before 2014.
