Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Upon or before election, hiring or appointment, it is required that individuals read and sign a conflict of interest policy. This policy includes the disclosure of all conflict of interest, or possible conflict of interest which compromises or could compromise the objectivity and effectiveness of such member and which is clearly detrimental to the best interests of the Corporation. These disclosures are noted and the individuals with a conflict of interest are not permitted to vote on any issue relating to the parties of conflict. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure and that the member was absent during the discussion and vote. To ensure that the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax, periodic reviews shall be conducted. These reviews, at a minimum, include reviews of compensation and benefit arrangements, as well as, review of all partnership and joint venture arrangements. If the board or committee has reasonable cause to believe that a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the members of the basis for such belief and investigate. If determined the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
