Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	During the FY17, Brighton Center started a program to instill money saving practices in people in need from the community. If the individuals save up to $2,000 within the period of the program, Brighton Center will match $2,000 amount 100%. All participants are required to stay for the full period of the program in order to receive the matching funds. The accounts are held by Brighton Center in the name of the participant, therefore a related liability account has been disclosed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Center is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of Kentucky law. However, the Center is subject to federal income tax on any unrelated business taxable income. The Center's IRS Form 990 is subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. The Center believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and therefore, does not have any uncertain income tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Before filing the 990, the Chief Financial Officer sends the 990 to the board members for their review Any concerns that the board members have regarding the form 990 are then addressed and adjustments are made as seen necessary

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually, members of the board of directors complete an information sheet that includes listing their place of business and other board/organization affiliations. New board members attend a board orientation meeting where all policies are reviewed. Board members are asked to abstain on any vote where a possible conflict of interest exists. Decisions that need full board approval are typically reviewed at the executive committee meeting that is held monthly, furthermore, the full board meets quarterly. The Board Chair and the President & CEO are present at the executive committee meetings where items that need board approval are discussed. The Board Chair or President & CEO may identify potential conflicts of interests of other board members during the discussion of the items that needs board approval. This conflict of interest will be stated during the full board meeting. Board members complete a conflict of interest disclosure form annually.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Employee evaluations are completed annually. Each employee is given a merit score based up on his/her performance. The Human Resources Director compiles a confidential report of all employees evaluations which is then given to the Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The CFO will calculate percentage increases for employees using information from the evaluation report, the agency budget, and the employee's earnings during the fiscal year. The CFO reviews the percentage increases with the President & CEO and the Vice President. The President & CEO, Vice President and CFO approve the agency wide percentage increase and employees typically receive their salary increases on July 1 of each year. Typically, the Human Resources Director conducts an executive compensation comparison by reviewing wage and benefit survey reports from a third party. The Human Resources Director creates a confidential executive compensation comparison report for review by the Brighton Center Executive Committee. The Brighton Center Board Chair reports to the Brighton Center Executive Committee of the Board of Directors the compensation comparison review.
