We maintain a low child to teacher ratio to ensure a high quality of care. In 2019 we served 94 infants and toddlers. Of those children more than 85% of them met or exceeded their developmental and educational goals. Our teachers are trained to recognize developmental delays and know when to recommend early intervention services and they work cooperatively with a variety of therapists in the classroom. We have continued to partner with Early Head Start to provide additional services and resources for at-risk families. Growing Together Preschool provided tuition assistance scholarships to 8 infants and toddlers enabling them to attend the program.
