Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

EDUCATION PROGRAMS-AdvanceKentucky is a program designed to fund training and incentives for Advanced Placement (AP) and Pre-AP courses in math, science, and English in Kentucky high schools. The program provides extensive training of teachers, identification and cultivation of lead teachers, and extended time on tasks for students and financial incentives based on academic results to expand the number of Kentucky students from across the state taking and excelling in the various math, science, and English AP exams. Acorn Awards is funded by the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education to present awards to outstanding professors at Kentucky colleges and universities. Two $5,000 awards were presented. One to a faculty member from a four-year institution and one to a faculty member from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Economic Development Programs Miscellaneous Workshops are for registration fees and contributions to specific workshops. Generally, these are small, one-time workshops and the fees charged are minimal. One such workshop was the "Building the Rural Business Incubator" workshop. The Knowledge-Based Economy (KBE) Funds are a series of investment funds aimed at promoting and capitalizing early stage technology commercialization in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. KBE is administered by KSTC and funded by the state through a contract with the Council on Postsecondary Education. The funds are dedicated to increasing the number of high technology companies and products in Kentucky. Components of this program include the Kentucky Enterprise Fund Program, the Rural Innovation Program, and the Kentucky Commercialization Program. The Kentucky Innovation Network Program/Headquarters is administered by KSTC and funded by the state through a contract with the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development Office of Entrepreneurship. The Kentucky Innovation Network Program is composed of a series of centers coordinated by a statewide headquarters, located at KSTC. The Centers are envisioned as public/private catalysts that will provide business-building and related services to Kentucky entrepreneurs, faculty, and scientists across the state and to facilitate the innovation and commercialization process. Kentucky Alternative Fuel & Renewable Energy Fund Program (AFRE) is funded by the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development Office of Entrepreneurship for KSTC to administer the Kentucky Alternative Fuel & Renewable Energy Fund Program. The purpose of the program is to accelerate knowledge transfer and technological innovation, improve economic competitiveness and economic growth of Kentucky-based companies, and to support R & D activities that have a clear potential to lead to commercially successful products, processes, or services specifically in the area of alternative fuels or renewable energy. The program also encourages partnerships and collaborative projects between private enterprises, Kentucky's universities, and research organizations in alternative fuels and renewable energy. Governor's School for Entrepreneurs is funded by the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development, by and through the Office of Entrepreneurship. It is an initiative to teach innovation and entrepreneurship to Kentucky high school students through the Governor's School for Entrepreneurs, KSTC is to develop, administer, and oversee Appalachian Angel Fund Formation is funded by the Appalachian Regional Commission providing funding for the formation of the Angel Investment Fund in Appalachian Kentucky to select target geography, identify investors, organize and launch a new Fund, and connect emerging enterprises to local sources of entrepreneurial support. Idea State University is a business plan competition funded by the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development by and through the Office of Entrepreneurship to conduct a professional, high-quality event for student teams and advisors from Kentucky's public universities. Competition awards and prizes are made to students and ventures on a competitive basis based on evaluations and decisions of expert judges.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Research and Development ProgramsThe Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR) Administration from the Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) represents state funds under the Kentucky Innovation Act (KIA) for the coordination and development of EPSCoR. The Kentucky Science and Engineering Foundation (KSEF) mission is to build science and engineering capacity and excellence by investing in basic and pre-commercial emerging research and development, technological innovation and transfer, and human resource development in Kentucky. This project is administered by KSTC and funded by the Commonwealth of Kentucky through a contract with the Council on Postsecondary Education. A major component of the foundation is the R & D Excellence Program. Kentucky SBIR/STTR Matching Funds Program is funded by the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development Office of Entrepreneurship and awards matching funds to Kentucky-based firms that receive federal Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) program awards. The program encourages growth of high-quality, advanced technology companies by increasing R & D intensity under Phase I to make Kentucky small businesses more competitive for Phase II funds, allowing continued technology and business development during Phase I and Phase II gap period, and advancing the prototype development and testing for early entry into the market place. Federal and State Technology Program (FAST) is funded by the Small Business Administration and is designed to stimulate economic development among small high technology business through federally funded innovation and research and development programs like the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer Research (STTR). The funding also provides small technology firms with specialized services that will equip them to more effectively participate in the SBIR award process.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 1b	The organization has invested grant funds in various organizations as part of its exempt mission. The investments are not reported on the balance sheet as any return on these invested grant funds would represent a liability of the organization back to the grant funding source, therefore creating a zero balance for the organization.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	System of Accounting for Separate Tracking of All Grant Funds KSTC's system of accrual accounting maintains separate tracking of all grant funds received and related expenditures made by source and by designated program/project with each source Grant funding codes are used for all direct expenditures such as salaries and benefits which charged per actual costs incurred through employee monthly time allocation sheets Employee business expense reimbursement reports are used for business travel costs, purchase orders are used for materials and supplies, professional service agreements are used for independent contractors and other service providers and automated tracking of postage, copying, long distance phone/fax charges, etc is used to maintain a clear record of direct expenses incurred for each grant Monthly and/or quarterly actual vs budgeted receipts and expenditures analyses are submitted to virtually all grant funding sources KSTC uses a Simplified Allocation Method to allocate indirect corporate costs to grants because all of KSTC's major grants, programs and functions benefit from indirect activities to approximately the same degree and thus the results are reasonable and equitable KSTC's annual indirect rate is negotiated with its federal cognizant agency, the Nation Science Foundation Grant funds received are considered to be earned and reported in revenues of the applicable grant when expenses have been incurred in compliance with the specific restrictions of the grant agreement Expenses incurred for which grant funds have not been received are reported by funding source as grants receivable, while grant funds received but not yet earned are reported as unearned grant revenue by funding source Annual External Corporate Audit and Fiscal Integrity KSTC requires a full annual audit of its consolidated financial statements by an independent CPA firm to ensure that they are fairly presented in conformity with Government Auditing Standards and generally accepted accounting principles in the United States This audit also provides assurance of the proper level of internal control and effective accounting records related to our consolidated financial statements and major grant programs which include the NSF, US DoE, SBA, ARC, NIST, etc
