Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the organization and recognize a tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the organization, and has concluded that as of April 30, 2019 and 2018 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The AIC board has established a conflict of interest policy that specifies conflicts of interest to be avoided. The board of directors may make exceptions to the policy in specific cases when the situation is fully disclosed to them. A provision of the conflict of interest policy is that each director, officer and employee must receive, sign and return a copy of a summary of the conflict of interest policy. Annually, AIC board members and Mountain Association for Community Economic Development, Inc (MACED) employees who work on AIC business sign the summary anew, affirming that they have read and understand the policy. As part of the annual audit process, board members and other related parties fill out a related party questionnaire on which they report any interests and transactions that could give rise to conflicts of interest. Any conflicts of interest are disclosed as part of the audited financial statements.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Staffing for AIC is provided by MACED, so the MACED compensation practices are applicable. Annually, the MACED president is evaluated through a process guided by the MACED board executive committee, composed of the board officers (chair, vice-chair, board treasurer and board secretary). The executive committee reports its findings to the board in closed session. After considering the committee's report, the MACED board sets the president's compensation for the following year. The board takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for the CEOs of three to five comparable organizations as well as its knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. The president does not participate in or vote on the decision on the president's compensation. The board's decision on compensation is recorded in minutes which are presented and approved at the following board meeting. This process last took place in December 2018. The president determines the compensation of other staff, including those who serve as corporate officers, following an annual performance review of each staff member. Along with considerations of equity among staff, the president takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for officer positions in three to five comparable organizations as well as his knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. Every change in a staff salary is documented in a letter to the staff member.
