Part VII

Supplemental Information.

Provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R. See instructions.

The Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission and the Coker County Partnership share office space, computers and other office equipment. The Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission was originally formed in 1981 and was the primary entity responsible for economic development activities in Coker County. However, now the Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission and the Coker County Partnership (which formed in 1999 & reorganized in 2004) both work on the economic development activities in Coker County. The Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission is primarily responsible for owning and leasing properties for economic development purposes and The Coker County Partnership is responsible for the day to day operations. The President of the Coker County Partnership is a paid employee of the Coker County Partnership but also serves as the Executive Director of the Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission - but receives no compensation from the Newport & Coker County Economic Development Commission.
