Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990
Arts for Learning's staff submits the completed 990 to the finance committee for review. The committee members individually review the 990 for accuracy and may ask staff questions and request clarification on any item. If there are any changes or corrections, the individual committee member submits them to the staff for inclusion. Once the committee fully reviews the 990, the staff sends it to the full board for final review before submitting to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and/or members of committees with board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. Officers, directors and key employees sign an agreement to report promptly any situation that might involve or appear to involve a potential conflict of interest. Each year, the Executive Director, upon entering into new agreements, provides officers, directors and key employees the opportunity to disclose conflict of interest. In addition, the Executive Director periodically checks in with the officers and directors to confirm that their status has not changed. Furthermore, these periodic reviews at a minimum include:

A) Whether compensation is reasonable and based on competent survey information.

B) Whether partnership or joint venture conform to written policies, are
