Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	The amount of a Village Legacy scholarship award has been established by the organization's board of directors. Stipends are smaller amounts that are established by the budget process for each program. A program manager or board member will participate in verifying that the recipient of the Village Legacy scholarship or stipend has met the criteria to earn the award. Once the criteria has been met, then the bookkeeper will issue a check to pay the amount. The check is signed by an authorized member of the board. Direct cash assistance to flood victims came to be because of the great flood that impacted our area in 2016. The Board wanted to help flood victims in some way and decided to do so through direct cash assistance. The amount of each cash award was $275 per person. Finally, the organization provides Dollars and Sense Investment Challenge awards to top placing students in the investment competition. This competition is the culminating event of our financial literacy program, which involves having the students compete to see who can design an investment plan that will best suit the investor. Judges evaluate the investment presentations and the winners were given investment challenge cash awards based on their ranking.
