Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Organization provides a home away from home for families seeking and receiving treatment for their seriously ill or injured children receiving treatment in the San Antonio, Texas area. The facility offers 58 family rooms, each with a private bath. There are also 5 suites with kitchenettes available for bone marrow, stem cell, or organ transplant patients who require isolation from the rest of the house. Additionally, the house has many common areas for kids of all ages and interests including playrooms and large outdoor play areas. There is a large communal kitchen and dining room where families can share meals together, which are often provided by volunteers. In a typical year over 1,000 children receive services, however the Pandemic required that RMHC-SA temporarily suspend services for several months. The organization began receiving families again in September at a reduced capacity at the advisement of local, state, national health, governmental and licensing entities. 555 children were served in 2020.
