(2) Weekend back packs / summer packs provides back packs filled with child friendly nonperishables for students and their school aged siblings. (3) In school snack programs snacks are available to at risk kids on an as needed basis to help them focus during the school day. (4) School pantries once a month a TAFB truck delivers food to schools in low income areas, 80% of the food is fresh fruits and vegetables. TAFB's Community Kitchen is primarily a learning center that provides life skills and culinary arts job training but also double as a production kitchen that produces an average of 6,000 meals per month. The students benefit from receiving hands-on instruction from professional chefs and by developing job ready interpersonal skills to help with job search and retention. 85% of graduates find full time employment after graduation. The community benefits by receiving 72,000 nutritious meals prepared from food that would otherwise have gone to waste. Cooking Matters is a hands-on six week cooking class that is offered to adults, teens and families in low income areas. The classes cover meal preparation, grocery shopping, food budgeting and nutrition. Over the past twelve months, over 650 people have participated in these classes and prepared over 8,000 nutritious meals for themselves and their families. TAFB's Community Gardens Program consists of a network of organizations helping to feed the hungry through local, sustainable fruit and vegetable gardens. TAFB provides the leadership and technical support for this program through its Learning Garden. At the Learning Garden, TAFB offers hands on training in growing fresh produce to bolster nutrition and physical activity. We also provide the community with access to our seed bank, the ability to borrow tools and equipment and an opportunity for garden enthusiasts to give back to the community. Over two tons of fresh produce from 16 urban gardens was provided directly to garden participants, food pantries, and local soup kitchens.
