Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Organization works with children and youth who have experienced adversity and breaks cycles of substance use disorders, homelessness and poverty by creating supportive communities through educational support groups, positive alternative activities and by training other professionals and volunteers in the CBSG model. Children learn and practice healthy self-management, relationship, and decision-making skills with positive adult role models. By being better equipped with healthy coping skills and personal resilience, they can rise above lifes challenges to create positive futures. The Organizations Curriculum-Based Support Groups (CBSG) program increases protective factors: high-expectation messages, safe and positive environments, caring relationships, a sense of belonging as well as increasing an individuals resiliency. Participants in the CBSG program learn to listen and communicate effectively, manage emotions, practice self-control, adapt to change, choose friends wisely, make healthy choices, resist negative peer pressure and practice teamwork. The CBSG program has been recognized by national registries as an effective prevention program and is proven to prevent and reduce substance use disorders, prevent delinquency and violence, increase commitment to making healthy choices, including staying in school and staying drug-, crime- and violence-free. Additional activities and services include prevention presentations, individual screening, referral and counseling services, summer camps, family outings, and holiday events. More than 9,000 children and youth participate in one or more of these activities each year. The Organization works with over 80 schools, shelters and community organizations in order to reach the children served. Through the Trans4m Center, the Organization expands its scope and impact by training over 500 youth-serving professionals each year throughout Texas and the United States in the CBSG Program and over 2,000 individuals each year in a variety of topics related to prevention and professional development. Since its founding, the Organization has served more than 220,000 local children and trained more than 52,000 professionals and volunteers throughout the United States in how to implement a support group or other prevention programs/topics.

Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	THE PURPOSE OF THE ENDOWMENT IS TO SUPPORT THE FAMILY CONNECTION PROGRAM

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and has not been classified as a private foundation as defined in the IRC. Income generated from activities unrelated to the Organizations exempt purposes is subject to tax under IRC Section 511. The Organization had no unrelated business income for the year ended August 31, 2019. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal income tax. GAAP requires the evaluation of tax positions taken in the course of preparing the Organizations tax return and recognition of a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and has concluded that as of August 31, 2019 there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.
