The primary activity of Texas Health Resources Foundation is to develop and cultivate philanthropy and collaborative relationships within the healthcare community. In addition, the Foundation aligns with Texas Health Resources and its related organizations to foster programs and services offered and to improve the health of the communities served. Most of the grants given by the Foundation are made to support the activities of the members of the Texas Health Resources healthcare system. Activities undertaken during the year are targeted programs to identify, cultivate, solicit, receive, invest and grant philanthropic funds. Activities undertaken include Capital Campaigns, Major Gift Program, Annual and Tribute Giving Programs, Planned Giving Program, Special Fundraising Events, and Hospital Affinity Groups. Grants were made in support of education of physicians, nurses and allied health professionals, medical research, indigent patient programs, hospital equipment replacement and capital projects, other patient care services needed in the community, and operating expenses for certain departments at related Texas Health System hospitals.

Return Reference	Explanation
Procedures for Monitoring Grants	Texas Health Resources Foundation (THRF) is a member of the Texas Health Resources, (THR) healthcare system. The majority of the grants distributed by THRF are to related tax exempt organizations. THRF does not pay grants in advance to related organizations. Related organizations request reimbursement for their qualified expenses, by submitting a request containing documentation that will enable THRF to verify the funds are being used properly. Grants to non-related tax exempt organizations are generally given to entities that are working closely with the THR organization. THRF is able to monitor the use of these funds through their activities with THR employees.

Business Relationship- Part VI, Section A, Line 2	Texas Health Resources (THR) and its related organizations included in the THR healthcare system encourage employees to become involved in philanthropic endeavors in their communities. As a result, THR healthcare system employees who are serving as officers, board members, or key employees may, from time to time, also serve on the boards of various community organizations such as church boards, United Way, etc. There may be a business relationship as a result of multiple THR employees serving on the same community boards. THR employees serve as the corporate officers of each subsidiary organization. As THR system employees, all officers have a business relationship within the organizations of the THR healthcare system. THR also appoints system officers to the boards of various controlled joint ventures. As THR system employees, various officers of the organization may have a business relationship through serving on THR controlled joint venture boards. Rick and Laura McWhorter have a family relationship.

Form 990 Filing-Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	A full copy of the Form 990 is provided to members of the governing board before filing. In addition, the Audit & Compliance Committee of the Texas Health Resources (THR) Board of trustees is given the opportunity to review, comment, and ask questions regarding the Form 990s filed for THR and each of its wholly controlled affiliates.

Return Reference	Explanation
Conflict of Interest- Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Texas Health Resources (THR) has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that applies to THR and all of its wholly owned or wholly controlled affiliates. During the first quarter of each fiscal year, a Duality and Conflict Statement Form is distributed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer to all board members, officers, contracted medical directors, employees with a title of manager or above, employed physicians, and certain committee members and other employees based upon function. All disclosed conflicts are reviewed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer. A report, listing each reported Duality of Interest or Conflict of Interest is given to both the Chair of the Governing body and the President of the Corporation with which the reporting person is affiliated. The THR Board of Trustees receives a report when the Annual Disclosure process is complete. Progressive corrective action is taken for any identified noncompliance which may include removal from a board or committee or physician/employee counseling if the person fails to provide the disclosure. In addition, THR monitors through a public database recently implemented by CMS. Management plans are executed as needed based upon disclosures. THR also educates the Boards and workforce annually through either a web based or live compliance training.

Compensation Determination- Part VI, Section B, Line 15 a&b	The organization relied on Texas Health Resources (THR) with centralized compensation professionals to review and establish the compensation of the organizations officers. A more in depth discussion of executive compensation review can be found on Schedule J, Part III.

Return Reference	Explanation
Public Disclosure- Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The organization does not make its governing documents or conflict of interest policy available to the public. The consolidated financial statements of Texas Health Resources (THR) are made available to the public on the website www.dacbond.com . Consolidated financial statements are posted to this website quarterly and the audited financial statements are posted annually. The financial statements of the wholly controlled affiliates of THR are not posted to the website nor are they generally made available to the public in any other manner.

Return Reference	Explanation
Consolidated Financial Statements- Part XII, Line 2c	Texas Health Resources (THR) prepares consolidated financial statements with its related entities. The THR Board appoints an audit and compliance sub-committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the consolidated audit for all related entities. The related entities do not have a separate audit committee, but abide by the THR committee's oversight. There has been no change during the year in the organizations oversight selection process.

Related Transactions- Part V, Line 2	Texas Health Resources (THR) is the parent organization in a large healthcare system made up of both wholly owned entities as well as related controlled joint ventures as listed on Schedule R. THR's role is to plan, manage and coordinate the activities of the affiliated healthcare system in order to maximize opportunities to deliver cost effective quality medical care to residents of north central Texas. THR provides direction and oversight to its wholly owned affiliates through centralized services. They also provide oversight for the controlled joint ventures. As an integral part of providing centralized services to the affiliates, THR maintains intercompany receivable/payable accounts, most of which do not fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13). The range of centralized services provided by THR include information services, managed care contracting, Human resources, revenue cycle, billing and collections, patient access/admissions, legal, tax, compliance, supply chain, quality, business development, insurance, treasury, marketing, general accounting, real estate services, coding, transcription and strategic planning. In addition, THR does daily cash sweeps of all controlled tax exempt entity cash accounts. As a result, THR has numerous daily transactions with controlled tax exempt entities, none of which fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13). A management fee is charged for the centralized services and reported on Form 990, Part VII, Section B as a professional services fee. Transactions with related tax exempt organizations not falling within this scope are not listed on Schedule R, Part V, Line 2.
