Name: Texas Health Resources Foundation

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The primary activity of Texas Health Resources Foundation is to develop and cultivate philanthropy and collaborative relationships within the healthcare community. In addition, the Foundation aligns with Texas Health Resources and its related organizations to foster programs and services offered and to improve the health of the communities served. Most of the grants given by the Foundation are made to support the activities of the members of the Texas Health Resources healthcare system. Activities undertaken during the year are targeted programs to identify, cultivate, solicit, receive, invest and grant philanthropic funds. Activities undertaken include Capital Campaigns, Major Gift Program, Annual and Tribute Giving Programs, Planned Giving Program, Special Fundraising Events, and Hospital Affinity Groups. Grants were made in support of education of physicians, nurses and allied health professionals, medical research, indigent patient programs, hospital equipment replacement and capital projects, other patient care services needed in the community, and operating expenses for certain departments at related Texas Health System hospitals.

Return Reference	Explanation
Procedures for Monitoring Grants	Texas Health Resources Foundation (THRF) is a member of the Texas Health Resources(THR) healthcare system. The majority of the grants distributed by THRF are to related tax exempt organizations. THRF does not pay grants in advance to related organizations. Related organizations request reimbursement for their qualified expenses, by submitting a request containing documentation that will enable THRF to verify the funds are being used properly. Grants to non-related tax exempt organizations are generally given to entities that are working closely with the THR organization. THRF is able to monitor the use of these funds through their activities with THR employees.

Return Reference	Explanation
990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Form 990 Filing	The Texas Health Resources (THR) tax department staff prepares the Forms 990 for THR and all of its wholly controlled affiliates. In order to accurately prepare the returns, the tax staff works closely with various other departments to gather and review the information needed to complete the return. The departments involved in this process include, but are not limited to accounting, finance, treasury, human resources, payroll, legal, governance, and corporate compliance. The returns are then reviewed twice within the tax department before being given to the Financial Reporting department to review and to ensure that the financial information is accurate and up to date. All THR System Forms 990 are provided to members of the Audit and Compliance Committee of the THR Board, giving them an opportunity to review, comment and ask questions regarding the Forms 990. The tax department Vice President provides an overview presentation to the committee highlighting various areas of the Form 990. A resolution to approve all of the returns is voted upon at this meeting. Once the Audit and Compliance Committee has approved the returns, each return is then reviewed and signed by the Chief Accounting Officer/Assistant Secretary. The members of the governing Boards are provided a copy of the Form 990 for their respective entity after the Audit and Compliance Committee approval process and before the Form 990 is filed.

990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Conflict of Interest	Texas Health Resources (THR) has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that applies to THR and all of its wholly owned or wholly controlled affiliates. During the first quarter of each fiscal year, a Duality and Conflict of Interest Statement Form is distributed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer to all board members, officers, contracted medical directors, employees with a title of manager or above, employed physicians, and certain committee members and other employees based upon function. All disclosed conflicts are reviewed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer. A report, listing each reported Duality of Interest or Conflict of Interest is given to both the Chair of the Governing body and the President of the Corporation with which the reporting person is affiliated. The THR Board of Trustees receives a report when the Annual Disclosure process is complete. Progressive corrective action is taken for any identified noncompliance which may include removal from a board or committee or physician/employee counseling if the person fails to provide the disclosure. In addition, THR monitors physician payments through a public database implemented by CMS. Management plans are executed as needed based upon disclosures. THR also educates the Boards and workforce annually through either a web based or live compliance training.

Schedule R, Part V, Line 2 - Related Transactions	Texas Health Resources (THR) is the parent organization in a large healthcare system made up of both wholly owned entities as well as related controlled joint ventures as listed on Schedule R. THR's role is to plan, manage and coordinate the activities of the affiliated healthcare system in order to maximize opportunities to deliver cost effective quality medical care to residents of north central Texas. THR provides direction and oversight to its wholly owned affiliates through centralized services. They also provide oversight for the controlled joint ventures. As an integral part of providing centralized services to the affiliates, THR maintains intercompany receivable/payable accounts, most of which do not fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13). The range of centralized services provided by THR include information services, managed care contracting, Human resources, revenue cycle, billing and collections, patient access/admissions, legal, tax, compliance, supply chain, quality, business development, insurance, treasury, marketing, general accounting, real estate services, coding, transcription and strategic planning. In addition, THR does daily cash sweeps of all controlled tax exempt entity cash accounts. As a result, THR has numerous daily transactions with controlled tax exempt entities, none of which fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13). A management fee is charged for the centralized services and reported on Form 990, Part VII, Section B as a professional services fee. Transactions with related tax exempt organizations falling within the meaning of centralized services as described above, are not listed on Schedule R, Part V, Line 2.
