Other	Part III, Line 28. Program accomplishments. Fight to Learn served 30, 5-12 year old children in its after school program. The children were assisted with school assignments, homework assignments, and cultural and literacy enrichments. Computers were also used to enhance the children's computer skills, along with how those skills transferred over to completing school and homework assignments through online research. In addition, the children were afforded the opportunity to participate in dental and nutritional seminars that are hosted once a month by local partnering professional dentists and dieticians. The children were also taught complete dental hygiene, plus the proper techniques of brushing and flossing. Additionally, the importance of making better choices of selecting healthier foods, snacks and beverages. Fight to Learn has retained 74% of its participants throughout the school year and 82% of the children improved in their school grades until our after school program was forced to stop its operation early due to the Coronavirus.
