Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

During this fiscal year CASA of San Luis Obispo County held five thirty hour training sessions for new volunteers. Training subjects included mandated reporter training, the effects of drug and alcohol abuse and violence on children and families, dependency law, child development, understanding diverse cultures, and writing court reports. Thirty-six volunteers were trained and sworn in by the Juvenile Court Judge. Thirty took their first case during this period as well. Our volunteers donated more than 17,000 hours and drove more than 94,000 miles to fulfill their CASA duties. Each volunteer was assigned to an Advocate Supervisor who supervises no more than 30 volunteers. The volunteers review all information concerning their assigned child including reports from social workers as well as medical and school records. The CASA volunteer is assigned to that child until the case is resolved in court, which averages 2.5 years (29.8 months) on our caseload. The volunteer prepares a court report prior to each hearing. This report contains objective, relevant information and makes recommendations on the child's best interests including reunification with parents, placement and plan for permanency, medical needs, mental health issues and educational concerns. The Juvenile Court Judge reviews the CASA reports and may ask the advocate for additional information and set additional review dates for receipt of that information. The CASA volunteer often provides information not otherwise available to the court, for example observations on relationships, academic performance, behavior that may warrant mental health services or counseling. The volunteer identifies services that are needed. This enables the judge to have more complete data. The CASA volunteer provides an unbiased extra set of eyes on the child in an overburdened system. Children require more than safety and shelter while they are in foster care. Their needs are often quite complicated, with issues ranging from the trauma inherent in abuse and neglect, remedial education needs and overlooked health concerns. CASA advocacy helps ensure access to appropriate health, mental health and dental services. Additionally, CASA volunteers are excellent role models for the children. With numerous studies documenting the positive impact that mentoring has on reducing negative behaviors such as substance abuse, violence, school failure and absenteeism, gang involvement and delinquency, the CASA volunteers positive and close relationship to the child is essential. Through weekly visits, volunteers provide a consistent adult friend that influences the child's ability to make good choices, to form positive and trusting relationships, and behave responsibly. CASA volunteers interaction helps to empower the child to overcome the negative consequences of their abuse and neglect. CASA helps to ensure that children do not get lost in the system and brings children's needs and circumstances to the attention of the juvenile court so that needed services are ordered. Advocating in the court and the community for the child's best interest, volunteers help create a safe, stable life for the child until the case is resolved in court, while also acting as a friend and mentor. During this tax year 153 volunteer advocates provided advocacy services as described above for 229 children in San Luis Obispo County.

Supplemental Information

| Return Reference      | Explanation  |
|-----------------------|--|
| Part X FIN48 Footnote | Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability (or as set) if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2017, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. |
