Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Sunday Friends empowers families to break the generational cycle of poverty. Programs foster positive development in children while they educate and guide parents to support their children's life success. Children and parents work together to contribute to the community, learn practical life skills and earn basic necessities. Sunday Friends provides a safe place where very low income families come together with volunteers in a secular community setting. In 2017, 1024 children and 882 parents were provided opportunities to earn the things they need to promote self-reliance and healthy, productive life styles while they gave back to the community. The programs are designed to foster growth and development in children. Parent involvement ensures that the practice of positive life skills will continue throughout the week. Sunday Friends provides a nurturing environment for practicing work ethics, manners, english language, money management, and healthy living. Every aspect of the Sunday Friends

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

P40 FAMILY SERVICESunday Friends is a program for very low-income families - parents along with their children. The program provides opportunities for whole families to work together to learn academic and practical life skills, engage in service projects and earn essential items. The program design is based on the belief that parents must be fully involved in efforts to create strong futures for their children. In Sunday Friends' 7-hour weekly programs, whole families learn and change together.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

P30 CHILDREN'S AND YOUTH SERVICES Because the ultimate goal of Sunday Friends is healthy, productive, self-sufficient futures for the children, all of Sunday Friends' activities are crafted to instill the developmental assets that the Search Institute has correlated to those kinds of futures. The program engages the parents along with the children to increase the sustainability of the changes in attitudes, work styles, self-concepts and habits.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

P58 GIFT DISTRIBUTION Through participation in Sunday Friends' programs, both parents and children earn multi-denominational "tickets", redeemable for toiletries, diapers, school supplies, household items, developmental toys, sports equipment and more. Sunday Friends is called "The Working Alternative to Charity" because the programs provide opportunities instead of handouts. Because they can earn what they need, families develop work ethics and money management skills while they close the gap between their very low incomes and their monthly expense budgets.
