Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Business Development Training and Small Business Consulting program provided service to 101 clients including 41 female and 60 male clients in 2016. The program equips African immigrants and members of other marginalized communities in the Twin Cities and greater Minnesota with pertinent business skills indispensable for their success as entrepreneurs of color. The training consists of classes, workshops, field work, and one-on-one sessions. Some of the areas the program provides business consulting to existing or aspiring entrepreneurs in are licensing and lease review, finance and accounting services, and crafting effective growth strategies and organizational structures. This program also includes the micro loans, which is to help provide access to the capital that helps launch their businesses.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Homeownership and Financial Literacy Workshop program provided to 95 families in workshops and counseling in 2016. The program helps disadvantaged families and first time homebuyers make informed decisions as they fully realize their slice of the American Dream, and to help individuals or families develop the skills necessary to succeed in the complex world of finance. Housing counselors can review your finances, credit report, and provide information on current mortgage loan programs, including down payment and closing cost assistance. Workshops will also assist in learning to make educated financial decisions and achieve financial goals.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Little Africa engaged with over 700 people through our events in 2016. This program is designed to engage with artists and communities to build local economy through art and cultural activities.
