Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Business Development Training and Small Business Consulting program provided service to 193 clients. The program equips African immigrants and members of other marginalized communities in the Twin Cities and greater Minnesota with pertinent business skills indispensable for their success as entrepreneurs of color. The training consists of classes, workshops, field work, and one-on-one sessions. Some of the areas the program provides business consulting to existing or aspiring entrepreneurs in are licensing and lease review, finance and accounting services, and crafting effective growth strategies and organizational structures. This program also includes the micro loans, which is to help provide access to the capital that helps launch their businesses.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Homeownership and Financial Literacy Workshop program provided to 88 families in workshops and counseling in 2018. The program helps disadvantaged families and first time homebuyers make informed decisions as they fully realize their slice of the American Dream, and to help individuals or families develop the skills necessary to succeed in the complex world of finance. Housing counselors can review your finances, credit report, and provide information on current mortgage loan programs, including down payment and closing cost assistance. Workshops will also assist in learning to make educated financial decisions and achieve financial goals.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Little Africa engaged with about 5,000 people through our events in 2018. This program is designed to engage with artists and communities to build local economy through art and cultural activities.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the Organization are tax deductible as the Organization qualifies under Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. During the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, the Organization has not incurred any interest or penalties on its tax returns. The Organization reviews and assesses its tax positions taken or expected to be taken in tax returns. Based on this assessment the Organization determines whether it is more likely than not that the position would be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Organization's assessment has not identified any significant positions that it believes would not be sustained under examination. The Organization has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as it's only significant tax position and has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The Organization is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdiction. Its federal income tax returns are generally open for examination for three years after the date of filing, including extensions.
