Other program services Part III line 31	1.Empowering Displaced Youth through Education:Partnering with NRHA, City of Norfolk's People First, and Urban Strategies, Young Investors Group supported 25 high school students from Booker T. Washington High School in Norfolk, VA. These students faced displacement in public housing. Through a combination of initiatives, they gained valuable skills and insights.1a.Dealership Takeover: The youth had an exceptional opportunity to learn economic investment through consumer credit and the car buying process via a Dealership Takeover with Banister Nissan. They interviewed Dan Banister, the owner of Banister Nissan, acquiring insights into financial and career success. This practical experience enhanced their financial knowledge, including consumer credit risk management and sales skills. 1.Empowering Displaced Youth through Education:1b.Ruffner Middle School Programming: The impact extended to 62 students at Ruffner Middle School. Customized programming covered crucial areas like entrepreneurship, e-commerce, personal branding, and wealth management. Different grade levels engaged in activities such as networking, presenting on personal branding and e-commerce, and conducting fact-finding financial service interviews. These activities collectively equipped students with essential life and financial skills, contributing to their holistic development. 2.Financial Empowerment Bootcamp for Detention Home YouthYoung Investors Group organized a transformative summer investment bootcamp with a concentration in the stock market, focusing on financial and life decision-making, for 10 youth in Tidewater Youth Services detention homes. This program emphasized self-investment, economic investment, and community investment. Participants gained a newfound sense of self-worth and net worth through stock market insights and investments. Their self-value increased by an impressive 75%, driving informed life choices. 3. 2022 Youth and Family Investment Conference - InvestaCon:Hosted by The School of Business at Norfolk State University, Young Investors Group held the first of an annual event called InvestaCon, Youth and Family Investment Conference. This was a dynamic event aimed at empowering families, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds. With a focus on financial literacy and technology, InvestaCon helped youth and families build financial legacies and informed investment decisions. This inclusive gathering connected experts, enthusiasts, and families, fostering dialogue and growth across a spectrum of essential topics, from finance and investing to asset protection, real estate, personal branding, funding, cryptocurrencies, and business.
