Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Our mission is to empower Colorado students to achieve a lifetime of economic understanding and financial freedom. How will we achieve this mission? By providing economic and personal financial education to students through training programs and classroom resources delivered to teachers, schools and school districts. We envision a world where all Colorado students will learn the fundamental economic and financial decision-making skills necessary to realize his or her full potential.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: n/a) (Expenses $ 505,289 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 283,2189)

Our primary exempt purpose is to provide education programs and services for Colorado K-12 teachers and the community to assist in improving economic education and personal financial literacy for students in Colorado K-12 schools.

We also make available to K-12 teachers and school districts a wide range of grade-appropriate economics and personal financial literacy (PFL) curriculum resources.

During this fiscal year, we delivered 43 economics and PFL teacher programs. More than 1,600 teachers and student teachers attended our professional development programs. We estimate that these teachers will reach about 100,000 students each year of their teaching career with an improved ability to teach economics and PFL in their K-12 classrooms. The total number of instructional hours delivered by our contract Ph.D. economics professors and mentor teachers was 7,460.

4b (Code: n/a) (Expenses $ 146,388 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 65,175)

We also provide a stock market portfolio simulation program, called the Stock Market Experience (SME). The SME program is provided to teachers of Colorado students in grades 3-12. It is a comprehensive, engaging, real-world, online investment simulation that fosters an understanding of the personal financial literacy (PFL) concepts of smart investing and saving, among others. Student stock market simulation programs have been proven to improve student learning in PFL, economics, math and language arts. We operate several SME sessions each school year.

This year, 249 teachers made Stock Market Experience available to more than 16,623 students statewide.

Form 990, Part VI, Section Form 990B, Line 11b: After preparation by staff, the Form 990 is reviewed by the Organization's auditor (CPA). The completed draft is then forwarded to the members of the board of directors for review and comment prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: A copy of the Organization's Conflict of Interest Policy is distributed to all board members at one board meeting each calendar year. Each director, officer and key employee is thereby annually notified of the requirement to disclose any interest on the part of themselves, or others, that could give rise to conflicts.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15b: The compensation of the President and key employees of the Organization is annually reviewed and determined by the Governance Committee of the board of directors as part of the annual budgeting process. This process includes a review of salary survey comparability data, including information from the Colorado Nonprofit Association and is also based on the knowledge of the local employment market on the part of the business persons who comprise the Organization's Governance Committee.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The Organization is a member of ColoradoGives.org. ColoradoGives.org is an online resource featuring hundreds of Colorado charities. It encourages charitable giving by providing comprehensive, objective and up-to-date information about Colorado charities. The Organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are made available to the public through the ColoradoGives.org website. All items are also available upon request through the Organization's office.
