Facts And Circumstances Test

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule A, Part II	Explanation of Unusual Grants Family Tree was the recipient of a large non-cash contribution of $2,822,176 in real estate from a single source. Since this amount is significantly larger than any other contribution historically received by the organization and is the result of a one-time transaction, the organization has disclosed the grant as an "unusual grant," therefore is not including it as a contribution for Schedule A, Part II purposes. The organization determined the grant to be unusual due to the following factors, as set out in IRS Treas. Reg. Section 1.509(a)-3(c)(4): the contribution was from a disinterested party and unexpected and unusual due to the amount of the contribution, the organization carried out a program of public solicitation and attracted a significant base of public support prior to the receipt of the contribution, the organization met the 33 1/3% public support test in all prior years of existence (81.78% public support in 2015), the organization has a representative governing body, and the transferor has not imposed material restrictions or conditions upon the contribution.
